

Step back in time to the days of Jane Austen— a time when good manners were most important. Fill up your dance card, sip tea and converse in a most proper fashion at Miss Austen's Manners!

- Learn the art of conversation 19th Century style!
- Practice your table manners at a tea party
- Dance the day away at the Netherfield Ball!
- Giggle and gossip playing parlor games
- And many surprises!

This program fulfills the requirements for the Social Butterfly Skill-Building Badge. The badge itself is not included— troops are responsible for purchasing the badge from the Girl Scout Council. The Travellers Rest patch is included in the program cost. As this is a historic immersion event space will be very limited, please reserve your space soon.
